In the case of hearings under Article VIII, Section A, the notice shall disclose the name of the member involved if the hearing panel so decides by a majority vote of the members present and voting at the hearing at which the action is taken or as authorized by the AICPA's Joint Trial Board. In the case of action under Article VII, Section

A(c), A(e), or Section B which was not resolved by a hearing pursuant to Article VIII, Section A, the notice shall disclose at least the name of the member involved. No such publication shall be made until such final action, expulsion or termination shall have become effective according to any governing rules.

SECTION B

Proposals to amend the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Society may also be originated: (a) by a committee appointed for such purpose; or (b) by a written submission to the Secretary of a notice of proposed amendments signed by at least five percent (5%) of the current Members eligible to vote, such notice being required to be received by the Secretary prior to sixty (60) days before a meeting of the Society. Under (a) and (b) of this Section, proposed amendments shall be presented for a vote of the Members entitled to vote at, and shall be included in the notices for, the Annual Meeting or any special meeting. If such amendments presented are approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Members present at such meeting, the proposed amendments shall become effective.

Further, by consent of the majority of the Members present at a meeting, any new proposed amendments that are made by Members present in person at such meeting and not previously noticed to the Members shall be presented for a vote at such meeting. If such floor amendments presented are approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Members present at such meeting, the proposed amendments shall then be submitted by mail or through the use of authorized communications equipment to all current Members eligible to vote. If then approved in writing by two-thirds of the Members voting by mail or through the use of authorized communications equipment, the amendments shall become effective.

ARTICLE X - INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION A

The Society may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including any action by or in the right of the Society) by reason of the fact that he is or was director, officer, employee, committee member or agent of the Society, against expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Society, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; provided that in case of actions by or in the right of the Society, the indemnity shall be limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expenses of litigating the action to conclusion) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action and no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Society unless and only to the extent that the court shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Society, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

SECTION B

To the extent that a director, officer, employee, committee member or agent of the Society has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

SECTION C

The indemnification hereunder (unless ordered by the court) shall be made by the Society only as authorized in a specific case upon a determination that the applicable standard of conduct has been met. Such determination shall be made: (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable or a quorum of disinterested Director so directs, by independent legal counsel; or (c) by a majority vote of a quorum of Members of the Society at a regular or special meeting of the Society.

SECTION D

The expenses incurred in defending such an action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Society in advance of the final disposition thereof if authorized by the Board of Directors in the manner provided in Section C, above, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the party seeking indemnification, to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Society as authorized hereunder.

SECTION E

The indemnification provided hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the person indemnified may be entitled, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member of the Board of Directors, officer, employee, committee member or any member of the Society who has undertaken such duty, task, or responsibility on behalf of the Society and at the request of the Society and shall inure to the benefit of his heirs and legal representatives.

SECTION F

The Society shall have power to procure insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or committee member, or is or was serving at the request of the Society as director, officer, employee, committee member or any member of the Society who has undertaken some duty, task or responsibility on liability asserted against or incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Society would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the Nonprofit Corporation Law of Louisiana.
