LCPA AWARDS

LCPA Distinguished Public Service Awards

1982 1983 1984 1985 1986 1987 1988 1989 1990 1991 1992 1993 1994 1995 1996 1997 1998	Norman R. Kerth A.J. Duplantier C. Cody White E.V. Moore Robert Wales Shelby Davis Herman J. Lowe Jake Netterville Leon Poche' Otray Woods John T. Hutchens Lonnie Stockwell J. Peter Gaffney Michael B. Bruno Ralph J. Stephens John C. Gautreau, II Ronald J. Prejean	2003 2004 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018 2019	Austin G. Robertson, Jr. Suzanne T. Mestayer Ralph B. Bender George P. Balhoff James K. McClelland Beverly R. Nichols Karen M. Dwyer John W. Dean Debra White Lockwood Susan Whitelaw Brian Stagg John Cameron Stephen G. Romig Joe Zanco Roy Beyer Layne McDaniel Lynne Burkart
	John C. Gautreau, II		Layne McDaniel
1999 2000 2001 2002	Tommie A. Vassel Ann Collette Emile P. Oestriecher, III Francis C. Jumonville, Jr.	<ul><li>2020</li><li>2021</li><li>2022</li><li>2023</li></ul>	Bob Kimbro Bridget Kaigler Timothy Doody Jodie Arceneaux

Honorary Members

John L. Carey
Arthur B. Foye
T. Coleman Andrews
Leon Hebert-Society Attorney
Joseph Burris-Legislative Auditor
Sidney Kess - national CPE discussion leader
F.A. Little, JrCPE discussion leader and attorney
Gary M. Scopes-former Executive Director
Jay Rothberg-former Executive Director
Dr. Jim Hood-Northeast LA University Accounting Department chairman for over 20 years
Jim Harris – Harris, DeVille & Associates (Lobbyist)
Emily Terracina - Catholic High School

Distinguished Service Awards

Distille	guistieu Sei vice Awarus
1961	Sidney A. Champagne	1994	Charles S. Comeaux, Jr.
	Basil M. Lee	1995	George A. Lewis
1966	Margaret E. Lauer	1995	Ron W. Stewart
1967	J. Earl Pedelahore	1996	Barry C. Melancon
	Clifton A. Morvant	1998	Jake L. Netterville
1969	Charles P. Quirk	2001	Ralph C. Cox, Jr.
	Herman J. Lowe	2002	Alfred E. Stacey, IV
1970	Gayle L. Dalferes	2003	Ashton J. Ryan, Jr.
	Abner E. Hughes	2005	Grover C. Austin
1972	Louis H. Pilie		C.W. "Will" Elliott
1974	Harold S. Dey	2006	Robert L. Perez
1979	Norman R. Kerth	2009	William E. Balhoff
1980	Melvin M. Pechon		Gerard H. Schreiber, Jr.
1984	Carroll Hill	2010	Steve J. Theriot
	Gertrude Iverson	2012	Grady R. Hazel
1985	Carol Barnes	2013	Austin G. Robertson, Jr.
	Robert Peyroux	2014	William M. Freedman, JD
1986	P.A. Cherry		Stephen D. Lustig JD
	Harold Willem	2016	J. Michael Inzina
1987	W. Theron Roberts		Candace E. Wright
	William C. Potter	2017	Raymond P. Ladouceur
1988	Harold Mollere	2019	Robert Angelico
1990	Pat McCarthy		William Potter
	Alvin J. Ourso, Jr.	2021	Brandon Lagarde
1993	William Jeff Cole	2023	Ronald A. Gitz, II

Outstanding CPE Discussion Leader

1987	Will Fleenor	2006	Kurt G. Oestriecher
1988	Robert L. Perez	2007	Charles C. Theriot
1989	Phil Haase	2008	Lisa D. Traina
1990	George A. Lewis	2009	Anne M. Oestriecher
1991	Raymond P. Ladouceur	2010	Kurt G. Oestriecher
1992	Ashton Ryan	2011	Robert L. Perez
1993	Raymond P. Ladouceur	2012	Steven Toups
1994	William C. Fleenor	2013	Alfred E "Ted" Stacey, IV
1995	J. Michael Inzina	2014	Joy Irwin
1996	Raymond P. Ladouceur	2015	Robert L. Perez
1997	Raymond P. Ladouceur	2016	Grady R. Hazel
1998	Kurt G. Oestriecher	2017	Gerard H. Schreiber, Jr.
1999	Lisa D. Traina	2018	Robert S. Angelico
2000	Raymond P. Ladouceur	2019	J. Michael Inzina
2001	F. Philip Haase	2019	Kurt G. Oestriecher
2002	J. Michael Inzina	2020	Les Nettleton
2003	Grady R. Hazel	2022	Brandon Lagarde
2004	Robert S. Angelico	2023	Nene Gianfala
2005	Raymond P. Ladouceur

Outstanding CPA in Business and Industry

1993	Richard A. Pennock	2015	Kenneth F. Champagne
1996	W. Bruce Hanks	2016	Stephanie H. Anderson
2003	Ralph B. Bender	2017	Curtis Meaux
2004	Robert S. Angelico	2018	Jeffrey Koonce
2005	Lynn V. Hutchinson	2019	Kerry Nichols
2006	Ashton J. Ryan, Jr.	2020	Lori Boeneke
2007	Suzanne T. Mestayer	2021	Chris Barr
2008	Peggy B. Scott	2022	Paul Mastio
2009	Dionne E. Viator	2023	Jodie Daroca
2012	William Chauvin	2023	Joe Zanco
2014	Kendall Johnson

Distinguished Achievement in Accounting Education Award

1986	Dr. William C. Fleenor	Southeastern Louisiana University
1987	Dr. Vincent C. Brenner	Louisiana State University
1988	Dr. Gordon A. Hosch	University of New Orleans
1989	Dr. Kenneth N. Orbach	Louisiana State University
1990	Dr. Thomas J. Phillips	Louisiana Tech University
1991	Dr. Cecily A. Raiborn	Loyola University
1992	Dr. Bart P. Hartman	Louisiana State University
1993	Dr. Philip J. Harmelink	University of New Orleans
1994	Dr. Joseph Fairchild	Nicholls State University
1995	Dr. Joyce C. Lambert	University of New Orleans
1996	Dr. Barbara Apostolou	Louisiana State University
1997	Dr. Lloyd Brandt Jr.	Loyola University
1998	Dr. James T. Hood	Northeast Louisiana University
1999	Dr. Glenn E. Sumners	Louisiana State University
2000	Dr. Brenda Stewart Birkett	Southern University
2001	Dr. Harold J. Smolinski	Louisiana Tech University
2002	Dr. Samuel J. Lambert, III	University of New Orleans
2003	Ellen D. Cook	University of Louisiana at Lafayette
2004	Dr. Ted D. Englebrecht	Louisiana Tech University
2005	Dr. Shawn Mauldin	Nicholls State University
2006	Dr. J. B. Stroud	Nicholls State University
2007	Dr. D. Larry Crumbley	Louisiana State University
2009	Dr. Michelle McEacharn	University of Louisiana at Monroe
2010	Michele Guidry	Nicholls State University
2011	Dr. David L. Manry	University of New Orleans
2014	Dr. William Richard Simpson	Southeastern Louisiana University
2015	Dr. Laura D. Wiley	Louisiana State University
2016	Dr. Jean Meyer	Loyola University New Orleans
2017	Stella Helluin	Nicholls State University

Life Membership Awards

1968	John A. Peyroux,	2006	Mildred M. McGaha
1300	Louis H. Pilie,	2007	Dr. Gordon A. Hosch
	J. Earl Pedelahore	2009	Jake L. Netterville
	Frank Youngman		Charles S. Comeaux
1971	Basil M. Lee	2011	William C. Potter
	H. Pfieffer Robbert	2013	Joseph Richard, Jr.
1975	Abner Hughes		Alvin J. Ourso, Jr.
1976	Gayle L. Dalferes	2014	Albert Joey Richard III
1979	Sidney A. Champagne		Gerard H. Schreiber, Jr.
1980	A.L. Postlethwaite	2015	Lawrence D. Berdon, Sr.
1983	Jimmy M. Fried,		Lonnie Stockwell
	Elmer.V. Moore,	2016	Melvin M. Pechon
	James W. Thokey		Robert L. Perez
1984	Everett G. Heller		Austin G. Robertson, Jr.
1985	Charles Bennett		Michael A. Tham
	Harold S. Dey	2017	Randolph J. Bonnecaze
1986	Moses Brener		Lee Gray
1988	Harold Willem		David Johnston
	Gordon Reische		Curtis Meaux
1989	Theron Roberts		Warren Pays
	Jim Mayer		Cody White
1990	P. A. Cherry	2018	Ralph Cox
	Charlie Quirk		Jerry Jolly
1991	Norman Kerth		Peggy Scott
	Robert Peyroux		Alfred E. "Ted" Stacey, IV
1993	Harold J. Smolinskit		William Weissborn
1994	Lincoln J. Harrison	2019	James Ryder
1995	Charles Toerner	2020	Michael Bruno
1996	Margaret E. Lauer	2021	Ted Mason
1997	Harold J. Mollere	2022	William "Bill" Balhoff
1998	Leon K. Poche', Sr.		Peter Bratlie
2001	H. J. Lowe		Emile Oestriecher
2003	Clinton J. Romig, Sr.	2023	C. Burton Kolder
2004	L. Paul Hood, Sr.

Special Recognition Awards

Year	Special Recognition Award Recipients
1953	John A. Peyroux (AICPA Vice President).
1960	Louis H. Pilie (AICPA Presidency).
1964	Certificates of Achievement for First Louisiana Tax Conference: Sidney A. Champagne, Bernard S. Jacobs, Allen B. Koltun, Leo P. Michiels, Jr., Melvin M. Pechon, William C. Penick, John T. Hutchens, Charles P. Levy, Albert J. Richard, Clinton J. Romig and Harry J. Williams, Jr.
1969	Harold S. Dey and Norman R. Kerth for contributions to First Louisiana Tax Conference
1973	George Lewis and Herman J. Lowe plaque for Municipal Audit Guide.
1978	Plaque for leadership in establishing Louisiana's first school for Professional Accountancy: Harold J. Smolinski 1978-Plaques for drafting new law governing the practice of public accounting in Louisiana: E.V. Moore, Robert A. Peyroux, Leon K. Poche' and John J. Sehrt.
1980	Verlee Mollere for leadership on AICPA Annual Meeting in New Orleans.
1984	Brian Kendrick for leadership in activities for industry members.
1984	Jake Netterville for establishing the Society's Free Enterprises activities.
1985	Herman J. Lowe for AICPA Chairmanship.
1986	Alan Fiorenza for Computer Education Chairmanship.
1986	William C. Potter for Taxation Chairmanship.
1988	Will Fleenor for expanding CPE programs in computer area.
1988	Brian Kendrick for involving the CPA profession in helping solve Louisiana's fiscal affairs.
1988	Certificates for individuals and firms contributing substantial time and money to state government on the "Blue Ribbon Committee on Budgetary Reform"
1989	Rowland Perry for outstanding efforts related to MAP Committee.
1989	Emile Oestriecher for outstanding efforts related to MAP Committee.
1989	Ray Jeandron for outstanding work related to State Board CPE Rules.
1989	Jeff Cole for outstanding work in implementation of quality review program.
1989	Julian Mehl for outstanding efforts related to industry members and education programs.
1991	Hugh Posner for outstanding leadership and contribution to Accounting and Auditing Standards Committee.
1991	Plaque for outstanding work and cooperation related to the Legislative Auditor compromise legislation. Monday Lowe, Pat McCarthy, Ed Conway, Dan Kyle, Pat Landry, and Robbie Robinson
1992	Denny Dennison for outstanding effort as Federal Tax Chairman and contributions to Society's Public Relations Program.
1992	Plaque to recognize nationally number one ranked CPE program in 1990. Staff Director of Society - Darlene Cusanza
1993	Tommie Vassel for leadership in establishing Louisiana's CPA Education Foundation which awards accounting scholarships.

1993 1995	Steve Theriot for his dedication, leadership and counsel on legislative and regulatory matters affecting the CPA profession.  Charles C. Theriot, J. Michael Inzina, William C. Fleenor and C. Will Elliott for their contributions to the success of the CPA profession's Continuing Professional Education program both nationally and at the state level.  Jake L. Netterville for service as 1994-95 AICPA Chairman.
1995	the success of the CPA profession's Continuing Professional Education program both nationally and at the state level.
	Jake L. Netterville for service as 1994-95 AICPA Chairman.
1995
1995	J. David Stagni for contribution to Society's government committee and governmental process.
1996	for their contributions to the Society's Legislative Auditor Liaison Committee and the Governmental Accounting & Auditing Committee's four task forces:
	Grover Austin, Dr. Daniel Kyle, Patricia P. Landry, Robbie Robinson
1997	Leon Poche' for contribution and leadership of the State Board of Certified Public Accountants of Louisiana as well as service to the Society of Louisiana CPAs.
1997	William E. Balhoff for contribution and leadership of the Society's Peer Review Committee, enabling this committee to become a model for the State Society's Peer Review Committee.
1998	Robert L. Perez for contribution to the success of the CPAs Continuing Education Program, both nationally and at the state level.
1999	Philip J. Gunn for contribution to the Vision Project and his leadership in communicating the vision to LCPA members.
1999	R. Lewis Smith, Jr. for contribution to the Society and its members in the area of technology.
2000	for contribution to the Society and the profession in devoting sufficient time and talents to the Uniform Accounting Act Rules Task Force to develop rules to implement the new Louisiana Accounting Act:
	Raymond P. Ladouceur, Carol T. Barnes, Edward D. Conway, J. David Stagni, Dr. Gordon A. Hosch, R. Lewis Smith, Jr., Donald L. Allison, Charles A. Giraud, III, Donald E. Pritchard, Ellen D. Cook, Mildred M. McGaha, J. Gordon Reische, Susan C. Cochran, and Michael A. Tham
2001	for their contribution to the Society and the profession in devoting significant time and effort to coordinate the New Orleans chapter Staff Training CPE programs:
	Vincent J. Buffa, Jr. and Gerard H. Schrieber, Jr.
2002	Postlethwaite & Netterville, for the firm's contribution to the success of the 2001 Louisiana Accounting and Auditing Conference.
2003	Michael B. Bruno for his contribution to the Society and the profession in fostering and promoting the entry of African Americans and other minorities into the accounting profession.
2004	Dr. Gordon A. Hosch for his contribution to the Society in devoting significant and effort to provide CPE as Chair of the UNO CPE committee.
2004	Tommie A. Vassel for his contribution to the Society and the profession for serving as the inspiration and driving force behind the Society's first CPA Calendar which achieved worldwide acclaim for the profession and the LCPA.
2004	Candace Wright for her contribution to the Society and the profession in representing small and regional CPA firms to Standard Setters and Chair of PCPA Technical Issues Committee.

Year	Special Recognition Award Recipients
2005	Horice J. James for his contribution to the Society in devoting significant time and effort to the LCPA's Tax Hotline broadcast on WDSU annually.
2006	Alfred E. Stacey for his notable willingness to serve as a primary spokesperson for the LCPA in frequent media appearances during the months following Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.
2006	Charles C. Theriot for his significant contribution the inception, development and presentation of the Small Business Disaster Recovery seminars offered throughout the state following Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.
2006	Gerard H. Schreiber, Jr., Anthony J. Stoltz, Richard S. Light, Patrick W. Buckley, Paul Waldman and Wade Ragas for their involvement in liaison activities with the IRS and the LA Dept. of Revenue which resulted in the issuance of tax relief provisions which greatly assisted LCPA members and taxpayers impacted by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.
2006	Faulk and Winkler, LLC for their generous support and contribution of office space to the Society while displaced following Hurricane Katrina.
2006	Diedra Allen, Norma Berniard, Olivia Burnham, Karen Caillouet, Fred Carter, Christine Dempster, Diane Jones, Stacey Lockwood, Ann Lupo, Linda Myers, Daniel Nelson, Maria Ortiz, George Raffray, Lisa Richardson, Cheri Santora, Henry Sorbet, Al Suffrin and Lisa Williams in grateful acknowledgment of their outstanding support and dedication to the Society following Hurricane Katrina.
2006	Grady R. Hazel for his exceptional leadership of the Society of Louisiana CPAs throughout the months following Hurricane Katrina and for the tremendous personal strength and support you provided to your staff in an unprecedented difficult time.
2007	Raymond P. Ladouceur, JD for his contribution to the Society and the profession in donating his time to moderate the Society's Talk About Taxes TV program for over fifteen years.
2007	PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for acknowledgment of the firm's significant contribution to the Society by preparing and editing the scripts for Talk About Taxes television programs.
2008	Jullin Renthrope for his outstanding commitment, tireless dedication and significant contributions to the Society and the profession in advancing government accountability in the state of Louisiana and nationwide.
2009	Tom Pender for creating the Gulf Coast Service Camp which provides services to individuals affected by Hurricane Katrina.
2010	Jacqueline L. Sullivan for having made a significant contribution to the CPA profession by enhancing the reputation and value of CPAs which serve business and industry through their role as employees of those enterprises.
2010	Grady R. Hazel for having made a significant contribution to the CPA profession by willingly and enthusiastically presenting the majority of the live and on-site Ethics programs for the 2007- 2009 CPE cycle.
2011	James C. Exnicios for his significant contribution in the development of successful legislation to exclude the capital gain from the sale of a Louisiana based business for Louisiana state income taxes.
2016	Michael B. Bruno, Mark P. Harris and Michael A. Tham in appreciation for their dedicated service on the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana.

William E. Balhoff in grateful appreciation for his dedicated service as Chairman of the AICPA (2013-2014)   Linda Babin for outstanding service above and beyond the call of duty and her tireless commitment to the profession in her capacity as State Government Relations Director   Gary Dressler for outstanding commitment to the profession by providing numerous presentations on the updates and changes to Louisiana tax law   William Potter for outstanding work on the Task Force on Structural Changes in Budget and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute   Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.   2020	Year	Special Recognition Award Recipients commitment to the profession in her capacity as State Government Relations Director  Gary Dressler for outstanding commitment to the profession by providing numerous presentations on the updates and changes to Louisiana tax law  William Potter for outstanding work on the Task Force on Structural Changes in Budget and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute  Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Finan	2016
Gary Dressler for outstanding commitment to the profession by providing numerous presentations on the updates and changes to Louisiana tax law  William Potter for outstanding work on the Task Force on Structural Changes in Budget and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute  Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Comm	2017	Linda Babin for outstanding service above and beyond the call of duty and her tireless presentations on the updates and changes to Louisiana tax law  William Potter for outstanding work on the Task Force on Structural Changes in Budget and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute  Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Com		commitment to the profession in her capacity as State Government Relations Director
William Potter for outstanding work on the Task Force on Structural Changes in Budget and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute  2019 Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  2020 Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  2020 Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  2021 Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  2021 David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  2021 Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  2021 Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  2021 Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  2023 Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Pub	2017	Gary Dressler for outstanding commitment to the profession by providing numerous and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute  Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).
Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  2020 Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  2020 Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  2021 Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  2021 David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  2021 Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  2021 Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  2021 Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  2023 Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2017
state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people affected by the laws.  Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		and Tax Policy and developing the Louisiana Tax Institute
Affected by the laws.  Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2019	Dave Glaviano and Arthur Parham for the countless hours given to reviewing proposed
Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations  Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		state legislation and helping to educate the people making the laws to protect the people
<ul> <li>Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program</li> <li>Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.</li> <li>David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.</li> <li>Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.</li> <li>Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.</li> <li>Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.</li> <li>Ricky Burke - for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).</li> </ul>		•
and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program  Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2020	Riley Busenlener for service to the profession especially in Business valuations
Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke - for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2020	Kurt Oestriecher for dedication to the professional especially related to the CARES Act
Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		and the SBA's Paycheck Protection Program school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while allowing them to earn college credit in the process.  David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2021	Tim Green - for his leadership and support of the University of Louisiana Monroe's
David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Dayle McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		Business Academy Program designed to encourage and nurture Northeast Louisiana high
<ul> <li>David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.</li> <li>Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.</li> <li>Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.</li> <li>Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.</li> <li>Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).</li> </ul>		school students with interest in accounting and other business-related fields while
LCPA Political Action Committee Board of Trustees and his efforts in educating legislators and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  2021 Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  2021 Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  2021 Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  2023 Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		allowing them to earn college credit in the process.
and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.  Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2021	David Johnston - recognized for his many years of dedicated service as a member of the Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, especially those in the underserved community.  Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).
<ul> <li>especially those in the underserved community.</li> <li>Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.</li> <li>Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.</li> <li>Ricky Burke - for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).</li> </ul>		and legislative candidates on the issues vital to Louisiana CPAs.
Daryl Purpera - for his 11 years of service as Louisiana Legislative Auditor. Under his leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2021	Layne McDaniel - for his dedication to improving the financial literacy of all ages, leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature, providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).
providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2021
advice and assistance to state and local government auditees.  Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		leadership, his office has focused on improving communications with the Legislature,
Darla Saux - for her 8 years of service as the Executive Director of the State Board of CPAs of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).		providing information to officials and the public in a meaningful manner, and offering of Louisiana and for her work in leading the state agency charged with enforcing the Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).
Louisiana Accountancy Act and regulating CPAs in the public interest.  Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2021	·
2023 Ricky Burke – for many years of dedicated service to the profession particularly in Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).
Financial Literacy and building alliances (with JA, Urban League of LA, NO Chamber of Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).
Commerce, Orleans Public Defenders, Delgado College).	2023
Dan Gardiner – recognition for his leadership in the profession.
	2023	Dan Gardiner – recognition for his leadership in the profession.

AICPA Public Service Award Winners (discontinued in 2017)

1993	Byron Bird, KS	2005	Ralph Bender, LA
1994	Lonnie Stockwell, LA	2006	Robert Kevane, CA
1995	Richard L. (Dick) Barclay, KS	2007	Michael D. Shmerling, TN
1996	William R. Halling, MI	2008	Beverly R. Nichols, LA
1997	David M. Dirks, CO	2009	Karen Mayer Dwyer, LA
1998	Ralph J. Stephens. LA	2010	John W. Dean, LA
1999	Robert Margolis, PA	2011	Johnny K. Hudson, AR
2000	Harvey Gaffen, IL	2012	Susan K. Whitelaw, LA
2001	Tommie Vassel, LA	2013	Diane Cornwall, KY
2002	Robert F. Fay, OH	2014	Terry Murphy, MI
2002	Mary Montoya, SD	2015	Stephen G. Romig, LA
2003	Austin G. Robertson, Jr., LA	2016	Joe Zanco, LA
2004	Kathryn Forbes, AZ

AICPA AWARDS

Women to Watch Experienced Leader Award

2014	Candace E. Wright
2015	Ellen D. Cook
2016	Lisa D. Traina
2017	Cheryl Payne
2018	Lee Anne Sciambra
2019	Diane Allison
2020	Becky Hammond
2021	Vanessa Claiborne
2022	Bonnie Marcantel
2023	Wendi Berthelot

Women to Watch Emerging Leader Award

2014	Kasey S. Henry
2015	Misty Geer
2016	Bridget Kaigler
2017	Jessica Cormier
2018	Nene Gianfala
2019	Krystal Calix
2020	Mukti Patel
2021	Robin LeBlanc
2022	Caitlin Guillory
2023	Trish Thibodeau